MISSING BIG ISLAND WORK FURLOUGH INMATE ARRESTED AND RETURNED TO HAWAII COMMUNITY CORRECTIONAL CENTER

HILO – Missing Hale Nani work furlough program inmate Jensen Yadao was arrested by Hawaii Police and returned yesterday evening to the Hawaii Community Correctional Center. Yadao failed to return after work on November 23 to the reintegration center.

24-year old Yadao was serving time for assault and abuse of family/household member. He faces an additional escape charge. His next parole hearing is scheduled for March 2016.

Yadao is a community custody inmate in the work furlough program with pass privileges. Community custody is the lowest classification status.

Hale Nani, HCCC's reintegration program, is a dorm-style building located in Panaewa. Hale Nani offers offenders reintegration services and a work release program for sentenced inmates who will be released on the island of Hawaii.
