HAWAII WORK FURLOUGH INMATE FAILS TO RETURN TO HALE NANI REINTEGRATION CENTER

HILO – Hale Nani work furlough inmate Jensen Yadao failed to return after work to the reintegration center. Yadao left for work Monday morning and was scheduled to return by 9:30 p.m. State Sheriffs and Hawaii County Police were notified.

24-year old Yadao is 5'4" tall and weighs 120 pounds. He has brown hair and brown eyes. He was serving time for assault and abuse of family/household member. He faces an additional escape charge when found. His next parole hearing is scheduled for March 2016.

Yadao is a community custody inmate in the work furlough program with pass privileges. Community custody is the lowest classification status.

If you see Yadao, please call 911.

Hale Nani, HCCC's reintegration program, is a dorm-style building located in Panaewa. Hale Nani offers offenders reintegration services and a work release program for sentenced inmates who will be released on the island of Hawaii.
