- .3 Furlough: An authorized leave of absence from the institution without an escort, which is creditable toward service of sentence and is intended to provide the selected inmates opportunities for in-community experiences with family and social reintegration, education, employment, vocational training, and/or specialized treatment prior to parole.
- .4 Individual Inmate Savings Accounts (Furlough Inmates Only): A savings account maintained at a bank under the name of an inmate for their personal use when actively participating in a work furlough program. These are restricted accounts requiring case manager/designee approval in order to make financial transactions.
- .5 Inmate: For the purposes of this policy, the term inmate applies to sentenced felons as well as detainees.
- .6 Inmate Trust Account: An account established to hold funds belonging to the inmate and maintained at a bank under the name of a facility for use by a group of inmates under the trust fund accounting system.
- .7 Legal Obligations: Payments ordered by the Court such as fines, restitution, damages, fees, costs, etc.
- .8 Restitution: Court or Facility ordered repayment of part or all of a loss caused by a crime, misconduct, or loss or damage of State or personal property.

4.0 POLICY

- .1 In accordance with the provisions of HRS, an Inmate Trust Account (ITA) shall be established for all money an inmate may receive from either outside sources or from work performed while incarcerated. An accounting system shall be established which will enable the inmate to make withdrawals from their trust account and receive periodic statements showing credits and debits to their accounts. The accounting system shall also incorporate controls, which will ensure accurate record keeping, and the safeguard of funds.
- .2 The ITA shall consist of two portions or accounts, a spendable account and a restricted account. All spendable and restricted accounts will be separate and not consolidated into one account. As mandated by Departmental P&P COR.14.02, Inmate Work Program/Compensation, fifty percent (50%) in excess of $20 in any calendar month of all money earned by an inmate while incarcerated shall be held in a restricted account, which the inmate cannot draw from except under the provisions of this policy. The balance shall be deposited in a spendable account, which an inmate may draw from. All money donated to an inmate from outside sources shall be deposited in the inmate's spendable account.

The Facility may restrict monetary deposits to only those who are approved on the Inmate's visitation list in accordance with P&P COR.02.13, Monetary Donations to Inmate Trust Fund.

Upon parole or discharge from incarceration, the balance of all money in the restricted and spendable account shall be given to the inmate under the conditions of HRS Chapter 353- Section 21, Withdrawals; Forfeitures.

- .3 In accordance with HRS Chapter 353- Section 20, Custody of Moneys; Accounts for Committed Persons, inmates shall maintain their funds in an Inmate Trust Account. Furlough inmates shall maintain their funds in an Individual Inmate Savings Account under their respective furlough program. Inmates may have unlimited access to ITA but the number of times a furlough inmate may have access to an individual account shall be generally limited.

5.0 PROCEDURES

.1 Establishing a New Account

- a. An ITA shall be established for all offenders upon initial entry into a correctional facility including contracted out of state correctional facilities. The account shall be identified by the name of the offender and their State Identification Number (SID). The account balance shall be established only after funds are received from the sending facility. Furlough inmates individual inmate savings accounts shall be established by the inmate's respective case manager/designee and the bank where the funds are to be maintained shall be notified in writing that the accounts are to be classified as restricted. These restricted accounts shall require two signatures for withdrawal authorization, the inmates' and facility designated authority.

.2 Payroll Accounting

a. Daily

A daily record (timesheet) shall be maintained of hours worked by each inmate. The timesheet shall be verified and signed by the inmate's work supervisor.

b. Monthly

A payroll report shall be generated which shows the total hours for the month worked by each inmate, his or her pay rate and total monthly pay. Based upon this report, a warrant shall be generated for each inmate for his or her total monthly pay through the purchase order process. Upon receipt of the warrant and verification against time sheets and the payroll report, the monthly earnings shall be posted to the individual inmate's ledger. In accordance with P&P

COR.14.02, Inmate Work Program/Compensation, fifty percent (50%) in excess of $20.00 shall be deposited in the inmates' restricted account and the balance deposited to their spendable account.

The monthly payroll report shall be verified by:

1. Comparing the total monthly hour amounts against the daily timesheets.
2. Checking that all inmates who received pay are inmates of a facility and that no inmates were left off the payroll report that should be paid.
3. Comparing the batch total of the payroll edit to the total payroll invoice sent to the Facility Fiscal Office for payment.

.3 Deposit of Receipts

a. Daily

1. All receipts shall be posted within two (2) working days from the day they are received to the inmate's ledger. (
2. A batch total of the amounts recorded in the ledgers shall be made and compared to the amount of an adding machine tape of the total deposits for the cash receipts book.
3. All receipts shall be deposited in the bank on the next working day after they are received. If receipts are not sufficient to warrant daily deposits, a Facility may deposit receipts on a weekly basis or every few days. However, no more than $100 of daily receipts at any time shall be held at a facility.

All monies held for deposit shall be placed in an officially designated secure location daily.

4. The deposit slip from the bank shall be compared and attached to the applicable batch of cash receipt slips in the cash receipt book or in a receipt file.

b. Monthly

A receipt journal shall be generated showing all entries and compared to the entries in the cash receipt book.

all receipts as revenue and all disbursements as expense. The journal voucher shall be forwarded to the Department of Accounting and General Services.

.7 Discharge of an Inmate

- a. Upon notification that an inmate will be discharged from custody, the inmate's account shall be reviewed prior to release to ensure the balance is current and all transactions (payroll, purchases, etc.) have been posted.
- b. The inmate may be allowed to keep their individual inmate savings account at the bank. Upon day of discharge, the inmate shall be given their savings passcard and other financial documents held by the facility. A notice that the account is no longer restricted shall be sent to the bank.
- c. Approval for payment of all compensation due an inmate shall be made only by the facility administrator or their designee. PSD 1995, Release of Inmate Funds shall be used for this authorization.
- d. Upon day of discharge, inmates that choose to not keep their funds in an individual inmate savings account shall be given a check for the full amount of their balance. In those cases where there is a delay in the posting of transactions such as monthly payroll or if a release occurs without prior notification to the Facility Fiscal Office, the inmate shall be notified in writing of the reason for the delay.
- e. The Facility shall inform the inmate that he may return during the Facility Fiscal Office's normal work hours to obtain his funds. The Facility shall obtain an address where the inmate's funds may be forwarded, if the inmate fails to report to the Facility Fiscal Office.
- f. The Facility Fiscal Office shall forward all of the inmate's funds to the address specified by the inmate at the time of release within 5 working days.
- g. If the Facility Fiscal Office receives the inmate's check back due to problems with the mailing address the check shall be voided. The funds shall be maintained as an inmate spendable account, until the inmate makes an inquiry or returns to incarceration. If the inmate is re-incarcerated then all funds will be forwarded to the appropriate facility as spendable account funds.

.8 Transfer of an Inmate

- a. When an inmate is transferred to another facility, the receiving facility shall establish an account for the inmate.
