3.0 DEFINITIONS

- .1 Qualified Fire and Safety Officer: An institutional staff member who has received training in and is familiar with the safety and sanitation requirements of the jurisdictions. The officer will have received on-the-job training regarding applicable regulations and inspections, including the use of checklists. The officer shall be devoted full-time to fire and safety issues within the facility.
- .2 Deficiency – Any finding less than compliant or satisfactory.

4.0 POLICY

.1 Self-Inspections

Regular formalized inspections of all buildings and grounds are essential to good security, safety, sanitation, fire prevention, and housekeeping. These inspections are in addition to the daily, routine checks made by various personnel as part of their daily assignment. Each Warden shall implement and enforce, at a minimum, the following formalized inspections:

- a. Security inspections shall be conducted at least weekly, by the Chief of Security (COS).

- b. Fire and safety inspections shall be conducted weekly by the qualified fire and safety officer. The officer shall routinely inspect the facility for compliance with safety and fire prevention standards.
- c. Sanitation inspections shall be conducted weekly in accordance with PSD, P&P, COR.07.05, Food Service Area Sanitation Inspection, by a designated staff member, who has completed the free 2-day food safety certification workshop from the Department of Health.
- d. Physical plant and equipment inspections shall be conducted weekly by maintenance personnel as set forth by PSD, P&P, COR.06.01, Preventive Maintenance Program.
- e. Wardens and other section heads shall inspect the facility's living and activity areas at least weekly. All inspections, including discrepancies, indicated remedies, and appropriate follow-up shall be documented and filed at the facility. Inspection reports shall be kept for 36 months.

.2 Outside Agency Inspections

Each Warden shall coordinate with the appropriate agency the following minimum formal inspections:

- a. Inspection of the facility by local fire officials to ensure compliance with the applicable fire codes.
- b. Sanitation inspections of the facility by the Department of Health to ensure compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

A copy of the inspection report shall be forwarded to the appropriate Division Administrator (DA), along with the Warden's plan of corrective action, if necessary, within 30 days following such inspections.
