HPD CONFIRMS CAPTURE OF THIRD MISSING WAIAWA CORRECTIONAL FACILITY INMATE BRIAN AQUINO

HONOLULU – Honolulu Police have confirmed they captured missing Waiawa Correctional Facility (WCF) inmate Brian Aquino this afternoon.

Earlier today Honolulu Police confirmed the capture of inmates Kekoa Aspera and Kamaka Villegas. All three will be booked by HPD for the escape. They will eventually be taken to OCCC for intake processing and then transferred to Halawa Correctional Facility.

WCF inmates Brian Aquino, Kekoa Aspera and Kamaka Villegas were reported missing from a headcount at approximately 9 p.m. on Tuesday night (4/18/17). How they escaped is under investigation.

Brian Aquino is serving time for Burglary 1. His next parole hearing was scheduled for October 2017. Aspera is serving time for Burglary 1 and Theft 1. His parole hearing was scheduled for September 2017. Villegas is serving time for Promoting a Dangerous Drug 3, Prohibited Acts Related to Drug Paraphernalia, Ownership/Possession of a Prohibited Firearm, Unauthorized Control of a Propelled Vehicle, Robbery 2, Forgery 2, and Promoting Prison Contraband 2. His parole hearing isn't scheduled until April 2019

Waiawa Correctional Facility consists of dorm-style housing for minimum custody, sentenced male inmates. All inmates participate in education or substance abuse treatment programs.
