

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

DAVID Y. IGE
GOVERNOR

NOLAN P. ESPINDA
DIRECTOR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mar. 20, 2018

ADULT CORRECTION OFFICER RECRUITMENT OPENS FOR ALL ISLANDS

HONOLULU — The Department of Public Safety is looking to fill Adult Correction Officer (ACO) vacancies on Oahu, Kauai, Maui and Hawaii Island. The recruitment is open on the Department of Human Resources and Development (DHRD) jobseekers webpage.

To qualify, applicants must meet all of the requirements listed on DRHD's webpage. Applicants must be a high school graduate or have a GED. They must also have one year of responsible work experience which shows that the applicant possesses the ability to relate effectively with people in following the instructions of a supervisor and giving or exchanging information.

For a full list of requirements and information on how to apply to become an ACO, please go to the DHRD Jobseeker listings by clicking on a link below:

Oahu (Closing 3/30/18)

https://agency.governmentjobs.com/hawaii/job_bulletin.cfm?jobID=1998800

Kauai (Closing 3/30/18)

https://agency.governmentjobs.com/hawaii/job_bulletin.cfm?jobID=1998799

Hawaii Island (Closing 3/30/18)

https://agency.governmentjobs.com/hawaii/job_bulletin.cfm?jobID=1998803

Maui (Continuous recruitment)

http://agency.governmentjobs.com/hawaii/job_bulletin.cfm?jobID=1575101

###

Media Contact:

Toni Schwartz

Title

Phone

E-Mail

Website

(Begin e-mail subject line with "NEWS RELEASE:")